

Sanner's Lake Woodstock Match Report – March 2019

A surprisingly great turnout (given the miserably lousy weather) made the first Woodstock match of 2019 quite a success! Swirling mist and occasional downpours didn't dampen the spirits of the eleven shooters who came out to challenge the elements and put rounds downrange under less-than-optimal conditions. Scores were damped somewhat by the dampness but the competition was tight across the board with quite a few tie-breakers needed to sort out the scores of the shooters. In the end, it was X-count that made the difference, allowing the M1 Garand of Mark Swierczek to edge out the Swiss K31 of Trevor Graves to take the top spot in the combined score category. In the individual score category it was similarly tight as a three-way race broke out for the top spots but when the smoke cleared Dick Chadwick's Garand beat out Trevor's K31 for second place behind Mark's Garand in another nail-biting tie-breaker. The rest of the scores were correspondingly close amongst the variety of rifles on the line, and it was great to see a pair of M1 Carbine's holding their own amongst the big boys. It was also great to see some new faces on the line as well as some unusual rifles, including a modern reproduction of a late-50's style Cuban-pattern AR-10. Interestingly, the original AR-10 rifle furniture was made of a Bakelite-type composite material comprised of phenolic resin and wood flour...so it technically squeaks in as a "Woodstock" rifle!

Thanks to everyone for making it out for the first match of the year and keeping the turnout strong in spite of the weather. Next match will be on April 18th and the weather promises to be much nicer...see you then!
