

Sanner's Lake Woodstock Match Report – September 2017

It was a mild and pleasant last day of summer at Sanners Lake as another full relay (and more) showed up to man the benches at the September Woodstock match. The usual Gaggle of Garands was there along with an abundant assortment of attention-getting antiques and relics. Well, they might have been relics in terms of age, but they were anything but on the bench, putting down stellar scores across the board. Paul Stephens and his vintage Krag tore up the center of the target, with Paul once again taking the top three slots in the individual score category as well as top combined, a superb performance with his nearly 115-year-old original rifle. Jesse Williams with his right-out-of-the-shipping-container Argentine Mauser and Mark Swierczek with his trusty '03 Mark I Springfield battled it out for second place in the combined score category, but Mark succumbed to the pressure and inadvertently cross-fired on Jesse's target during the second string allowing Jesse to cruise into second place combined with ease. The cross-fire (scored as a miss) didn't hurt Mark too badly, though, as he still had enough points to take third place combined. The rest of the pack did well too, including Raymond Zeigler who kept the heat on the Garands and the rest of the big boys as he put down decent scores with his peashooter M1 Carbine. The last Woodstock match of the year will be on October 19th, so come on out and close out the year with a bang!
